Apply for the Municipal Master Services Agreement (MSA) RFR

The purpose of this Request for Responses \(RFR\) is to establish a pre-qualified list of approved vendors, namely local and regional public health entities, to be eligible for potential future funding from the Department of Public Health DPH. This approach will provide a simplified process for eligible entities to access DPH funding, consolidate multiple sources of funding from DPH, and create a more efficient process for how certain funding is distributed.

All municipalities, regional planning agencies, regional council of governments, or regional health districts are strongly encouraged to apply as many future DPH grants will be distributed through this municipal master services agreement (MSA). NOTE: PHE lead grantees are already in the MSA and do not need to apply.

Visit the RFR posting here for the application and Confidentiality Agreement (can be found in the REQ zip file on COMMBUYS). Please return the completed forms to Brian.W.Sheehan@mass.gov along with any other questions.

Three Principles to Communicate About Health Equity Concepts

Health Equity is complex, and communicating about it can be challenging. To achieve health equity and eliminate health disparities, we must reframe public health communication efforts to effectively address skepticism toward achieving health equity and to explain the underlying drivers of inequities.

Communicating using a health equity frame means focusing on creating broader understanding of the social, structural, and systemic factors that may impact health outcomes. This resource offers public health professionals three evidence-based principles with tangible strategies to clearly and effectively communicate about health equity concepts with diverse audiences.

Building Collaborative Partnerships for FPHS Success

OLRH is excited to share updates about our journey towards implementing the Foundational Public Health Services (FPHS) Framework in Massachusetts. The FPHS Framework offers local public health agencies in Massachusetts a flexible approach to strengthen service delivery.

In the coming months, OLRH will work closely with local public health (LPH) officials and subject-area experts to develop Massachusetts-specific examples, which complement the national FPHS Framework. This is what we are calling our FPHS Relevant Description Process. More than 100 public health professionals, working across Massachusetts, have agreed to participate in the process.

We understand it will take time for municipalities to build the capacity and training to implement every aspect. OLRH is committed to collaborating with LPH and forging strategic partnerships to ensure the national FPHS Framework becomes approachable and relevant to Massachusetts's local public health system. We recognize local public health is not responsible for providing all the services in the FPHS Framework.

In May, we will share more details related to the FPHS process in the year ahead.

Previous FPHS communications, information, and resources shared in the monthly LBOH Webinars, and the Pulse newsletter are documented here.

Performance Standards Local Public Health Self-Assessment Tool

The Performance Standards Self-Assessment Tool will allow for local public health – both those participating in the Public Health Excellence Shared Services Grant Program and those not currently involved – to measure their ability to achieve the Performance Standards. This is an optional resource for you to use as you need and is not tracked or required by OLRH.

Who should use this tool?

- * Local public health who have previously completed the Baseline Capacity Assessment and want to see the improvements made over time toward achieving the Performance Standards.
- * Local public health who have never taken the Baseline Capacity Assessment and want to get a sense of where they are on meeting the Performance Standards.

How to Get Started: Visit <https://www.mass.gov/info-details/self-assessment-tool>

For more information, view slides from the Special Topic Webinar on March 12. If you have any questions while you are completing the Self-Assessment, or need support, please reach out to Christina Moore for assistance (christina.moore3@mass.gov).
