Hello CPRE TEAM!!

Hope you've had a great week!! Your homework was to review Communications and begin to read Finance Sections of the Management Text.

Please see ZOOM LINK below. Slides in the morning :)

Tomorrow we have a busy section, so please jump into the waiting room 5 minutes before we begin. I'll pull you all in to get the roll and we will start on time! Make sure you have a calculator available for tomorrow as well.

As we move closer to the practice exam, just a few reminders: you cannot be in a conference room or any shared spaces. You must be in an isolated home or work office. The computer HAS to have a front-facing camera with no blurred or false backgrounds (just as if you were taking the real exam) . There can be no interruptions or distractions (in other words, no working while we are taking the exam). Also, be sure you have a great connection, because if you drop, you will not be allowed back into the exam. Please continue to work on these logistics and please let me know if you have any questions.

Looking forward to seeing you all in the morning!!!

😊Katie
