Good morning Frederick,

We had one recruit drop out of the October Stow Call Vol class so we have enrolled you into the class. Congratulations! You were sent the acceptance packet already (also attached here) so you should have all the info needed but I wanted to send you the official email as well.

If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to reach out.

Thank you!

Hello,

Congratulations, you have been accepted into the Call/Volunteer Recruit FF Training Program Class 116 MFA.

Attached is the acceptance information. There is a lot of information so please print and read everything carefully.

Orientation day is on October 15, 2024 at 1830 hours at the Stow Massachusetts Fire Academy Campus, 1 State Road, Stow, Ma.

If you need reasonable accommodations please refer to the document in the acceptance packet on how to submit your paperwork.

If you have any questions at all, please do not hesitate to reach out. We look forward to training with you.

Please respond to this email so I know that you received it.

Thank you!
