Help us spread the word on the Economic Recovery Corps fellowship opportunity to early- to mid-career professionals with a passion and desire to create transformative economic change in communities nationwide! There are less than 3 weeks left to apply before the August 15 deadline.

The ERC Fellowship program is a unique (paid) opportunity to join – and help build – a nationwide network of diverse practitioners and leaders with the passion, skills, and vision to advance new ways of doing economic development.

ERC Fellows will serve as catalysts, working in partnership with local leaders and communities to activate regional economic development strategies that drive innovation, sustainable growth, and build long-term resilience. Throughout the 30 month program, fellows will gain access to robust professional development resources and support such as mentorship, trainings, conferences, research, networking, and more.

To help us reach potential fellows, please share this opportunity with emerging leaders and practitioners across various disciplines that intersect with community and economic development! Ideal ERC fellows possess a minimum of five years of professional experience in a manager-level role, an entrepreneurial spirit, ability to learn on the fly and communicate across multiple disciplines, are natural ecosystem builders and connectors, and have a passion to serve others to produce meaningful impact.

Learn more about the inaugural Economic Recovery Corps program, review the frequently asked questions, or apply at www.economicrecoverycorps.org/fellow-info/.

Fellow applications close on August 15.
