Hi Shaun,

How are things in Hopkinton? Any fallout or pushback since the Board voted to adopt NFG? New signs in the stores? How is retailer education going? I've been doing inspections in my local communities, and I'd say 90% of owners/clerks I talk to get it. The know they now just have to look at the birth year. Either someone was born before 2004 or they weren't. Not any pushback to speak of.

Do you have friends/colleagues in Ashland? We'll be doing a public hearing there 9/16.

Would be great to have some youth. Short notice but I just have to ask.

We're not sure if it will be in-person, virtual, or hybrid. I can let you know as soon as I hear.

I also want to find out where to send written testimony. Maybe to the HD, Raj. I'll let you know that oo. Need to nail this one down quickly. 😊

Thanks!

Best,

Maureen

Good evening Maureen,

Things are going well. One retailer wants to buck the trend and become a tobacco shop. They appear to be seeing the light.

I can speak to Rajit and find some kids.

Do we still have a joint program with Ashland where we could recruit from?

Shaun

We have no joint program, but we do go to MWSAPA with them. We all just attend that meeting together. Our kids who could testify graduated...but you can ask Erin or Colleen if they want to send Emily our young intern...she wanted to speak at Hopkinton and lost out on time...
