To: Barbara Best <barbarabest73@gmail.com>

I feel so fortunate to have met you. I learned so much today! Several take-aways.

I love how we sat down on the chairs in front of Momma's and just started talking. And really connecting. We don't need a fancy setting. Just sit right there on the sidewalk on Mass Ave. in Cambridge.

I'm looking forward to meeting up again - - Forty Steps in Nahant, Piers Park in East Boston. There are so many wonderful, beautiful, soothing spots around here. By the way, if our schedules don't allow us to make a date before colder weather, please go to these two spots anyway. You will love them.

And if you are ever back in Reading let me know. I am always up for a walk in the woods.

I'm refueled and ready for tonight's regional BOH meeting.

Have a great evening!

Maureen

Greetings Maureen!

I'd love to meet at Momma's Grocery in the Porter Square area. I've never been and this sounds so interesting! We love Vermont and have enjoyed visits since we moved to Cambridge from Texas 15 years ago. Such a beautiful place, and the majesty of nature's beauty fills me with a deep sense of peace and possibility. I love that Momma's carries chocolate milk produced by a family-owned farm in the community where you grew up. That's so special!

Let's definitely check this out!

It looks like the address is:

2304 Massachusetts Ave
Cambridge, MA 02140

And this is the website...

<https://www.mommasgrocery.com/>

Generally, afternoons during the weekdays work well for me. Perhaps we could meet at Momma's and go from there.

I could meet on any of the following days/times:

- Wednesday, 9/17, 1pm - 5pm
- Thursday, 9/18, 1pm - 5pm
- Monday, 9/22, 2pm - 5pm
- Tuesday, 9/23, 1pm - 4pm

Might one of those days work for you? I can also look at the week of 9/29 if that's helpful.

Very much look forward to connecting with you. A wonderful way to move into a new season and celebrate the power of collaborative action and Commonwealth Heroines!

With appreciation,

Barbara

Let's. There's a place I've been meaning to check out. I think it's "Mooma's" in the Porter Square area. I believe it's basically a liquor store but they carry chocolate milk produced by a family-owned farm in Vernon, Vermont where I grew up. Maybe there is a coffee shop or café nearby. Doesn't have to be that area but it popped into my head. I pended you for late September. Look forward to connecting.

Thank you, Maureen - Great to hear from you!
Appreciate your sharing information on the campaign in Cambridge.

Would love to meet in person at some point - maybe later in September or at some point this fall? Happy to connect when you are in Cambridge.

Thank you again for reaching out. Grateful to be connected with you!

Barbara

Thank you so much for your response. I remember you now!!

My friend Bonny Carroll is the Tobacco Program Director for Somerville/Cambridge/Chelsea/Everett/Revere/Winthro p.

Somerville adopted NFG this past spring. I understand from Bonny that the Cambridge Assistant City Solicitor is looking at trying to change the Tobacco sales regs from a city ordinance to a BOH regulation. That would potentially smooth the way for adoption of NFG.
Cambridge is generally a leader in public health innovation. Hope to see them come on board. That would be a huge add.

We currently have 500,000 residents in 17 communities covered by NFG. Need to reach critical mass in order for there to be a good chance that the Legislature would pass a State-wide bill. Fingers crossed.

Let me know if you have any interest in joining our grassroots group.

But whether or not you do I would love to meet for coffee some time to keep up the connections to our MA Heroines Class of 2025. So many interesting and accomplished women I would not have met except for this powerful event. (I'm already thinking of potential candidates for my State Senator and my State Rep to consider nominating next year.)
Let's meet in person. Melrose is not far from Cambridge. I love Cambridge. I go there for protests!
Best,
Maureen

Dear Maureen,

I am so happy that you reached out about the Commonwealth Heroine recognition and our amazing community of leaders!

I had the honor of sitting next to you at the wonderful awards ceremony.

Deeply appreciate your leadership, innovation, and tenacity in mobilizing communities to enact tobacco prevention policies.

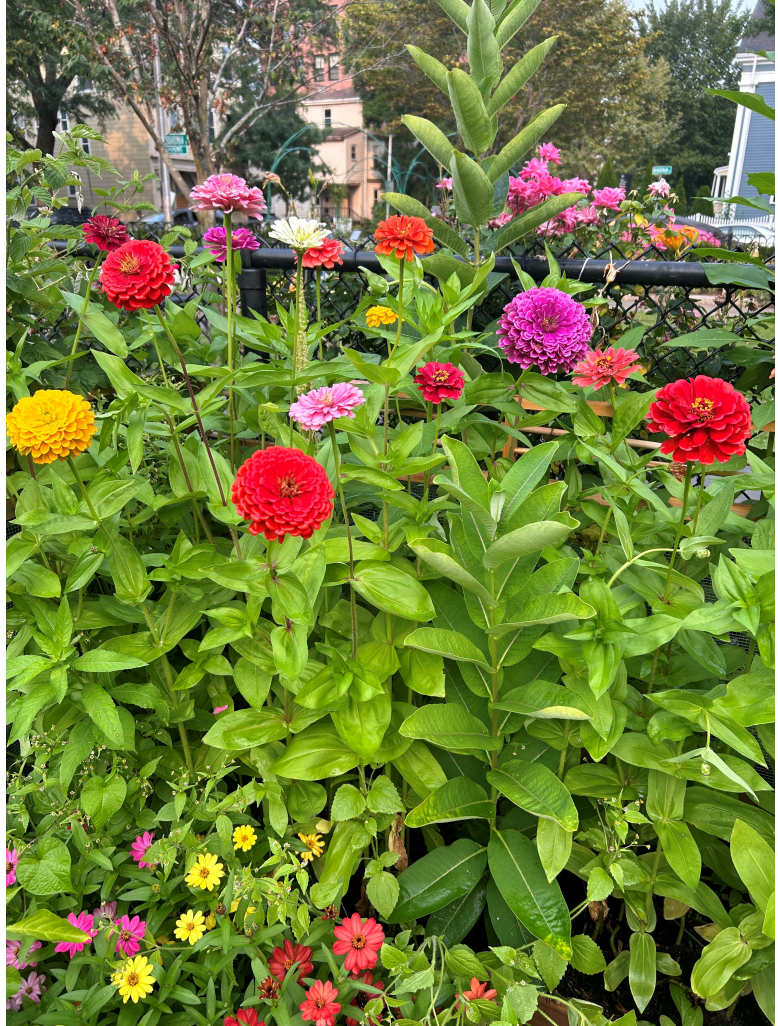

I am so happy to be connected with you!

Hope you had a wonderful summer and wishing you peace, joy, and abundance as we move into a new season.

In gratitude,

Barbara

P.S. Sharing this picture of our amazing zinnias in our community garden this summer. I'm amazed by the growth in the flowers, planted from seed, over just a few months. Thank you for all that you do to work towards flourishing for our communities!
