I raised my hand two speakers before they called on me, so the list is short.

Should Shresta and I try to speak, or are they looking for more adult input right now?

Sounds like they are encouraging NEW testimony and not those who have spoke thus far. That is going to push a couple of us to the end IF there is time. Props to all who are on who have not spoke...we are now depending on your voice.

Here's a one pager on environmental impact—not much out there.

I can clean it up a little more but it's a start.
