

From: MASC <tnovick@masc.org>

Sent: Jun 27, 2025 10:00:23.000000000 UTC

Subject: The Daily Ed for Friday, June 27, 2025

To: Kerriann <kgolden@cityofmelrose.org>

The Daily Ed: Friday, June 27

News about public education gathered from across the Commonwealth and beyond periodically over the summer

Should you find a paywall blocks your reading, please use the 'reply' function to request the text.

NATIONAL

- The U.S. Department of Education is far behind on producing key statistics (Brookings)
- Trump administration may be signaling intent to defy Congress and cut $5B more from schools for the coming year (EdWeek)
- Medicaid cuts will hurt nearly half of America's kids (Bloomberg)
- American Academy of Pediatrics will continue to publish its own vaccine recommendations after CDC advisers sow distrust (APA News)
- Tackling blocking: Trump's proposal for ed funds and research on block grants (National Education Policy Center)

ACROSS THE COUNTRY

- From gangs to college: A grant-supported program found success as it steered young people connected to gangs into higher education — until the money stopped coming (Hechinger Report)
- For some students with disabilities, suspension is not just a matter of race and gender, but of geography (The 74)
- Zohran Mamdani on education: The Democratic primary winner's plans for NYC schools (Chalkbeat)
- Trump's anti-DEI agenda faces major blow as judge sides with San Francisco schools (SF Gate)
- Faith leaders and families sue to block Texas' new Ten Commandments in schools law (AP)

- Chicago Public Schools budget for 2025-26 school year delayed at least late July; district may reconsider high-cost borrowing plan rejected by outgoing Martinez (Chalkbeat)
- Trump Education Department finds California trans athlete policy violated Title IX (K-12 Dive)

AROUND THE COMMONWEALTH

- State experts mulling federal vaccine policy shifts, Mass. response (State House News Service via Commonwealth Beacon)
- Two Pittsfield Public School staff members charged in drowning of 12-year-old at Benedict Pond last July (The Berkshire Edge)
- The Pittsfield School Committee has approved moving forward with a plan to restructure the city's middle schools (The Berkshire Eagle)

At Curtis's final meeting as superintendent, Pittsfield school committee approves plan to reorganize city middle schools (WAMC)

Pittsfield School Committee approves middle school restructuring (iBerkshires)

- Pioneer Valley legislators, residents speak out on need for more rural school funding (Greenfield Recorder)
- Northampton school superintendent expects to depart after upcoming school year (Daily Hampshire Gazette)

Northampton, Mass. officials begin prep for superintendent's eventual departure (WAMC)

- Parents sue Beverly Teachers Association over fall strike (Salem News)
- Haverhill City Councilor pushes for more seats at planned Whittier Tech, saying it aids 'upward mobility' (WHAV)
- Two Lynnfield town workers resign after racist remarks caught on hot mic before high school graduation (Boston Globe)
- Unvaccinated students not welcome back in Newton this fall until up-to-date on vaccinations (Boston Globe)
- Boston Public Schools close its last middle school, following national trend of consolidating campuses (Boston Globe)
- Column: Justice for Lens Joseph is taking too long: Two months after the 5-year-old was killed by a Boston school bus, investigations but no real action. (Boston Globe)

Could AI give Boston school buses more green lights?
The city will test it (WBUR)

- North Attleboro School Committee wants more education money from town (The Sun Chronicle)
- Long, hot 'cut night' reduces New Bedford city budget by $10 million: Nearly every city department's budget was trimmed, with some of the largest cuts affecting schools, police and the Zeiterion. (New Bedford Light)
- At Nauset Regional Middle School, outdoor education has a home (Cape Cod Chronicle)

● Steady hand at the high school looks to the next chapter (The Vineyard Gazette)

Share

Tweet

Share

Forward

Massachusetts Association of School Committees
1 McKinley Square, 2nd Floor
Boston, MA 02109
(617) 523-8454
www.masc.org

Connect with MASC on social media:

Not subscribed to these updates? Sign Up

Having trouble viewing this email? View it in your browser.

You received this message because you're signed up for the Daily Ed from MASC. If you no longer wish to receive this newsletter, you may unsubscribe here.

CITY OF MELROSE PUBLIC RECORDS NOTICE: Please be advised that the Massachusetts Attorney General has determined that email is a public record unless the content of the email falls within one of the stated exemptions under the Massachusetts Public Records Laws.